

Financial Requirements for International Students

New Mexico State University

The following figures are used to document eligibility to issue immigration documents to admitted applicants. Documents submitted should be original (not copies) and official documents, such as a current bank statement, and an 'affidavit of support' is needed if the applicant is not the account holder. Contact dqobrick@nmsu.edu with questions.

(2009-2010 Academic Year, tentative, subject to change)

Tuition and Fees: (non-resident)	Graduate: US$12,300	Undergraduate: US$15,000
Living Expenses:	6,060	6,060
Insurance, other fees:	1,600	1,600
TOTAL	$19,960	$22,660

Graduate with Graduate Assistantship (or other out-of-state waiver):

Tuition and Fees:	US$4,100
Living Expenses:	6,060
Insurance, other fees:	1,600
TOTAL	$11,760

Undergraduate with tuition waiver:

Tuition and Fees:	US$5,000
Living Expenses:	6,060
Insurance, other fees:	1,600
TOTAL	$12,660

Dona Ana Community College:

Tuition and Fees:	US$3,900
Living Expenses:	6,060
Insurance, other fees:	1,600
TOTAL	$11,560

Dependent Expenses:

Spouse:	Add $4,000 (per year)
Each Child:	Add $2,500

